"He that would be greatest among you,
let him be servant of all."

To
Walter M. Bodenhorn

who, by his quiet, unostentatious and self-effacing devotion to lowly tasks, has provided both faculty and students with an outstanding and consistent demonstration of the servant principle, this book is lovingly dedicated.

There are strange ways of serving God,
You sweep a room or turn a sod,
And suddenly, to your surprise,
You hear the whir of angels' wings
And find that you are under God's own eyes
And building palaces for HIM.

"GO YE INTO ALL THE WORLD

"AS MY FATHER HATH SENT ME,
SO SEND I YOU." John 20:21.

So send I you---to labor unrewarded,
To serve unpaid, unloved, unsought, unknown,
To bear rebuke, to suffer scorn and scoffing,
So send I you---to suffer for My sake.

So send I you---to bind the bruised and broken,
O'er wandering souls to work, to weep, to wake,
To bear the burdens of a world aweary,
So send I you---to toil for Me alone.

So send I you---to loneliness and longing,
With heart a-hung'ring for the loved and known,
Forsaking home and kindred, friend and dear one,
So send I you---to know My love alone.

So send I you---to leave your life's ambition,
To die to dear desire, self-will resign,
To labor long and love where men revile you,
So send I you---to lose your life in Mine.

PRAYING PIONEERS, the student missionary organization, has sponsored daily prayer meetings for both home and foreign missionary work. They have also kept us constantly in touch with world wide needs and opportunities for service. Missionary projects for the school year have included cash Christmas gifts to all G.C.S. missionaries abroad, a Public Address system for South Africa, Bibles for Russia, Europe and Japan, small radios for the Far East, and pressure lanterns for village evangelism in India.

"There is no gain but by a loss;
You cannot save but by a cross.
The corn of wheat to multiply,
Must fall into the ground and die.

"Where ever you ripe fields behold,
Waving to God their sheaves of gold,
Be sure some corn of wheat has died,
Some soul has there been crucified;
Someone has wrestled, wept and prayed,
And fought hell's legions undismayed.

"Life everywhere replaces death,
In earth and sea and sky;
And that the rose may breathe its breath,
Some living thing must die.

"But all through life I see a Cross,
Where sons of God yield up their breath;
There is no gain except by loss,
There is no life except by death,
And no full vision but by Faith,
Nor glory but by wearing shame,
Nor justice but by taking blame,
And that Eternal Passion saith,
'Be emptied of glory and right and name.'"

Dear Graduates:

When the court asked Whitaker Chambers what a Communist is, he referred to the three men who, as a Communist, were his three heroes.

The first was an ascetic Polish Communist who, while he was in prison for the sake of his faith, insisted on having the task of cleaning the latrines. This, he felt, was the duty of the more advanced, to do the most menial tasks, and in this way set an example for those who were followers.

The second was a German Jew, a revolutionary who was arrested, court martialed and sentenced to death. In court, after sentence was pronounced, he looked them in the eye, and said tersely, "We Communists are always under sentence of death."

The third was a Russian associated with the assassination of the Prime Minister. He was sentenced to a Siberian prison. As a protest against the flogging of his fellow prisoners, he soaked his clothes in paraffin, lighted a match, and burned himself to death.

As professed followers of the Man of Calvary, dare we bring to our task a lesser measure of devotion? In these days of indulgence and love of ease, as you go forth from the halls of G.C.S., I challenge you to join me in the following prayer of Christina Rossetti:

God harden me against myself,
The coward with pathetic voice
Who craves for ease, and rest, and joys.

Myself, arch-traitor to myself;
My hollowest friend, my deadliest foe,
My clog whatever road I go.

Yet One there is can curb myself,
Can roll the strangling load from me,
Break off the yoke and set me free.

Deeply spiritual, delightfully informal in the classroom, Mr. Sparks has endeared himself to his students. Rich doctrinally, his teaching is of great spiritual value.

CHOOSE YOU THIS DAY WHOM YE WILL SERVE. Joshua 24:15.

Jesus and Alexander died at thirty-three,
One lived and died for self; One died for you and me.
The Greek died on a throne; the Jew died on the cross;
One's life a triumph seemed; the other but a loss.
One led vast armies forth; the other walked alone;
One shed a whole world's blood; the other gave His own.
One won the world in life and lost it all in death;
The other lost His life to win the whole world's faith.

Jesus and Alexander died at thirty-three,
One died in Babylon; and one on Calvary.
One gained all for self; and one Himself gave;
One conquered every throne; the other every grave.
The one made himself God; the God made Himself less:
The one lived but to blast; the other but to bless.
When died the Greek, forever fell his throne of swords;
But Jesus died to live forever Lord of lords.

Jesus and Alexander died at thirty-three;
The Greek made all men slaves; the Jew made all men free.
One built a throne on blood; the other built on love,
The one was born of earth; the other from above;
One won all this earth, to lose all earth and heaven;
The other gave up all, that all to Him be given.
The Greek forever died; the Jew forever lives.
He loses all who gets, and wins all things who gives.

Radio Ministry

Mr. Burl Dixon
Engineering Instructor

Because of the extensive radio ministry of G.C.S. and its connection with WCBC, Anderson's 1000 watt daytime regional station, students are offered an excellent opportunity to obtain on-the-job training in all fields of radio including control room techniques. Long range plans envision courses in announcing, program production, copy writing and technical operation.

WCBG
CENTRAL INDIANA'S FARM AND HOME STATION

GREAT COMMISSION SCHOOLS has entered the field of Public Service by giving to this area Anderson's 1000 Watt daytime regional radio station which it operates by authority of the Federal Communications Commission.

With a 100% Christian Studio Staff, fully dedicated to the principle that a radio station should be operated in the interest of the public rather than cold commercialism WCBC is setting a high standard of Public Service.

With programming and advertising policies governed by the highest moral considerations, WCBC is rapidly gaining in public favor and acceptance. Clients of WCBC are voluntarily offering testimonials of increasingly amazing results through WCBC advertising.

WCBC is furnishing new evidence that a radio station can be programmed in the BEST interest of the public and still be a commercial success.

Through GREAT COMMISSION SCHOOLS' connection with the radio station and particularly through its FM affiliate, the School offers an ideal opportunity to its students for actual on-the-job, on-the-air training in control room techniques, radio announcing, continuity and script writing, production and programming.

Miss Sharlene Reed, for nine years a member of the Staff of The Anderson Gospel Tabernacle and Great Commission Schools, is the efficient Bookkeeper and Secretary to the General Manager.

Mr. Worth Rough, a former G. C. S. student, Christian business man and minister of the Gospel, is the General Manager of radio station CBC.

John Snider, a former member of the staff of Anderson Gospel Tabernacle, also a former teacher at Frankfort Pilgrim Bible College (John still directs their choir), is doing a splendid job as Program Director for WCBC.

The deep baritone voice you hear on the WCBC newscasts belongs to Jim Raines. Jim is a senior in the Theological Department of Anderson College where he is preparing for the ministry. During working hours he is News Director for WCBC.

APPY HANK", otherwise Cedric Harger, is an ordained minister of Gospel. He is a first class "salesman" of the gospel as well as the advertisers on WCBC. "Happy Hank" is Master of Ceremonies he Hill Billy programs.

"Yes, WCBC is a DIFFERENT station. . . . one in which you find a picture of Christ in every room and not an ash tray anywhere!"

In November, 1937, Miss Dorotha Brunson left a good job in an insurance office in Louisville, Kentucky, to assist her uncle, Rev. Paul E. Billheimer in the office of the Anderson Gospel Tabernacle. Those were pioneering days when our office furniture and equipment consisted of a cast-off secretary's desk, a homemade file cabinet, and various little tables together with two typewriters and a used adding machine.

Miss Brunson in old office

Miss Brunson in present office

Through these fifteen and a half years, Miss Brunson has shared our labors, sorrows, joys, burdens, and victories, in our worldwide ministry. For many years she has served as bookkeeper for the radio department and more recently, for the Schools also.

Being gifted with a beautiful voice, Dorotha began at once to assist with the radio music, singing in the radio chorus as well as with various harmony groups, such as a girl's trio, mixed trio, ladies' quartette and mixed quartette.

Through the years Dorotha has been granted a worldwide ministry through the medium of the office as she handles thousands of dollars that have gone to the mission fields, writing the letters each month to the missionaries.

On June 14, 1953, wedding bells are scheduled to ring for Miss Brunson and Mr. Delbert Egly of near Anderson. Our prayers for a very happy married life follow them.
